Important Information for Buyers

All lots are offered subject to Morton & Eden Ltd.'s Conditions of Business and to reserves.

Estimates are published as a guide only and are subject to review. The hammer price of a lot may well be higher or lower than the range of figures given and there are no fixed starting prices.

 Illustrated lots are marked with an asterisk. Images of additional items not illustrated in the printed catalogue may be available online.

A Buyer's Premium of 20% is applicable to all lots in this sale and is subject to VAT at the standard rate (currently 20%). Unless otherwise indicated, lots are offered for sale under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme.

‡ Lots marked with a double dagger symbol have been imported from outside the European Union (EU) to be sold at auction under Temporary Admission Rules. When released to buyers within the EU, the buyer becomes the importer and must pay import VAT (currently 5%) on the hammer price.

VAT may be refunded to buyers from outside the EU under certain circumstances and if satisfactory evidence of export is produced within three months of the date of sale. Please note that Import VAT can only be refunded if the purchases are exported via Ferrari Express Ltd. Morton & Eden Ltd can obtain quotations from Ferrari Express Ltd in this regard on behalf of non EU clients.

Morton & Eden Ltd can obtain quotations for the shipping of purchases and assist in applying for export licences. However buyers are reminded that it is their responsibility to comply with UK export regulations and with any local import requirements.

Morton & Eden Ltd will be pleased to execute bids on behalf of those clients unable to attend the sale in person, subject to our Conditions of Business. Lots will always be purchased as cheaply as possible, depending on any other bids and reserves. This service is offered free of charge.

Written bids should be submitted before 6pm on the day prior to the sale.

SIR WILLIAM PARKER:
ORDERS, MEDALS AND MEMORABILIA

'He was one of the first, as he was the last, of Nelson's Captains'

326
The Important Group of Awards to Admiral of the Fleet Sir William Parker, Bart., G.C.B., comprising:
The Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Military Division, Knight Grand Cross Sash Badge, in gold and enamels, by J.J. Edington, apparently without a date mark but a Regency or George IV period re-issue, 86mm; with embroidered Investment Star, 105mm approx., and original Sash;
Naval General Service 1793-1840, 2 clasps 1 June 1794, Amazon 13 March 1806 (Wm. Parker Midshipman.);
China 1842 (Sir W. Parker, K.C.B., Vice Admiral of the Blue), all extremely fine, the Amazon clasp to N.G.S. neatly mounted on its own carriage designed to slot in place above the 1 June 1794 clasp, China with standard nickel-silver fixed suspension, both medals with matched silver riband brooches for wearing (lot) £20,000-30,000

Phillimore, Rear-Admiral Augustus, The Life of Admiral of the Fleet Sir William Parker Bart., G.C.B., 1781-1866, 3 vols., London, 1876-1880 (including extensive quoted correspondence and amounting to almost 2,000 pages in all);
Copy of obituary and printed eulogy.

Not to be confused with the 'double-issue' award to a different Midshipman William Parker (in a complete group now in the Capt. K.J. Douglas-Morris Collection), Sir William's Naval General Service medal was originally issued with the single clasp 1 June 1794, at which Gold Medal action he served aboard the Orion under Captain John Thomas Duckworth.

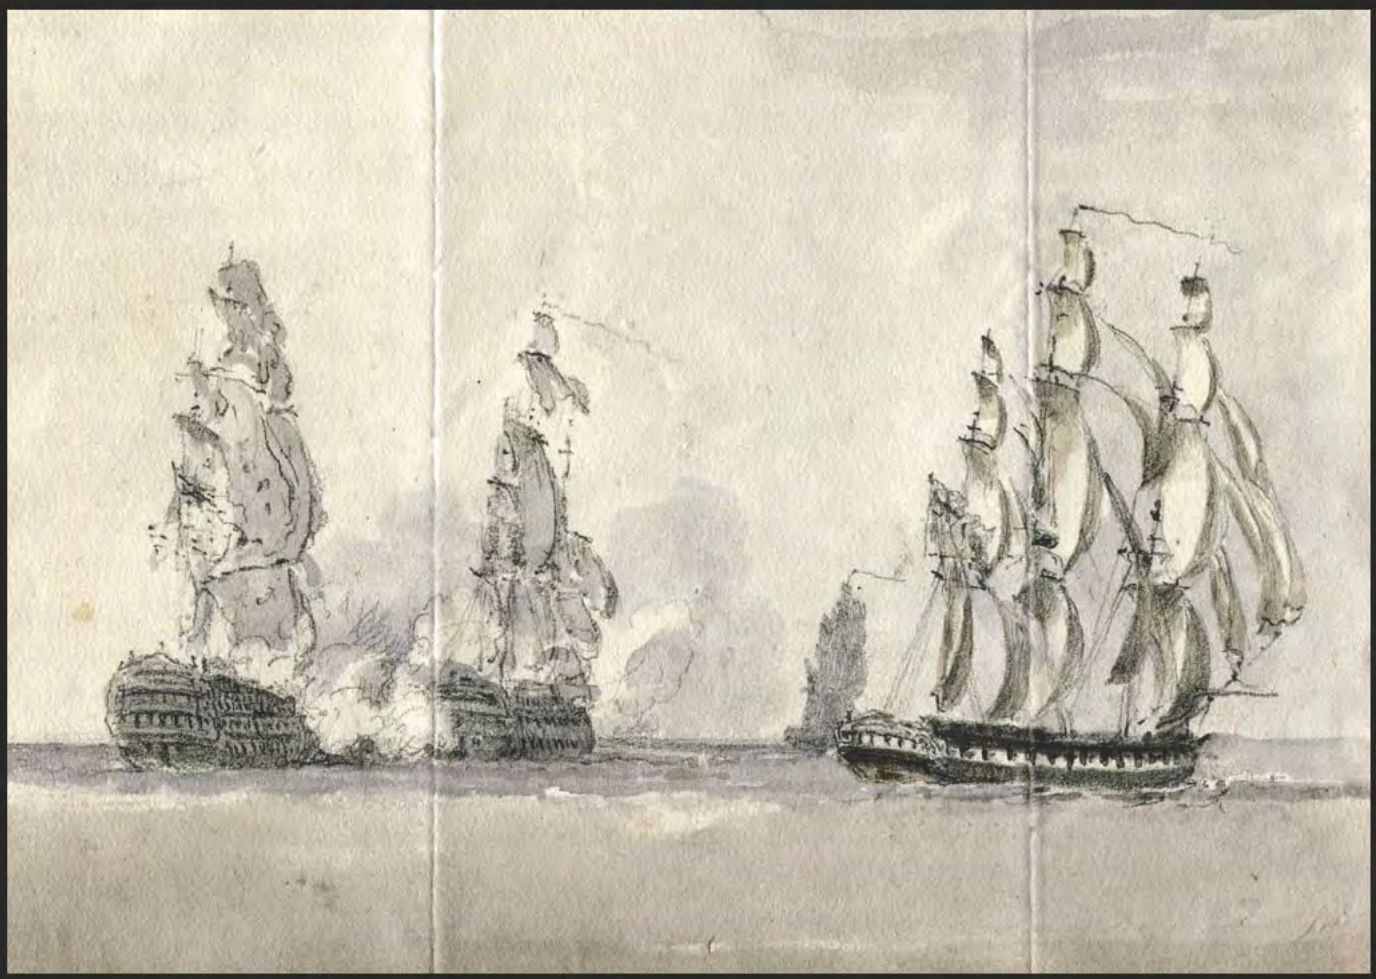

As Captain in command of the Amazon on 13 March 1806 Parker can obviously be 'verified aboard, not on roll', to borrow Captain Douglas-Morris's expression, and he qualified not only for the frigate action clasp of that date (authorised after the first 1847 announcements of clasps for Gold Medal actions) but also, had he so directed, for the re-issue of his original medal with the revised rate 'Captain' to his name. Instead a neat arrangement was evidently designed to accommodate the fitting of the new clasp onto the existing medal, and this in fact is clearly discernible in the contemporary portrait of Sir William which accompanies the lot. By the time he actually received his NGS, the Vice Admiral had of course already been appointed GCB and had received his China 1842 medal, also shown in the portrait.

ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET SIR WILLIAM PARKER, BARONET, G.C.B. (1781-1866) was Earl St Vincent's nephew through marriage and one of Nelson's favourite Captains: '... I admire his spirit and resolution to attack... under all the disadvantages of situation; such conduct will some happy day meet its reward.'

Following the Glorious First of June the young midshipman transferred to Leviathan with Captain Duckworth, serving in the West Indies and receiving command of the prize La Magicienne. A successful predator against enemy commerce, he was appointed in turn to Sir Hyde Parker's flagship Queen, as acting captain of the Volage in the Gulf of Mexico and Cuba, and to the sloops Aramanthe, Pelican, and Stork in which he returned to England and took the French packet La Légère as a prize.

Himself promoted Captain on 9 October 1801, Parker was appointed firstly to Alarm and secondly to the 38-gun Amazon during the Peace of Amiens (he was to command Amazon for over 10 years, after which she was worn out and paid off). An early errand for Amazon was the return to England of the Duke of Kent at the end of his tenure of the Governorship of Gibraltar, whence he had been delivered by Admiral Richard Keats. Nelson greatly admired Parker's aggressive and calculated seamanship, notably when Parker chased a French frigate into Toulon, and a close comradeship developed between the two men during the pursuit of Villeneuve's fleet to the West Indies prior to Trafalgar. There were to be several further engagements and prizes, with the 'Amazon 13 March 1806' NGS clasp recognising the capture of the French 40-gun frigate Belle Poule when approaching the Azores, a parallel clasp being issued for H.M.S. London's taking of the Marengo in the same action.

Captain Parker married Frances Anne Biddulph in 1810 and spent the period 1812-27 ashore with his family of two sons and six daughters. In 1827 he returned to sea in H.M.S. Warspite (74), arriving just too late for the Battle of Navarino but employed in the Greek blockade. In 1828 he transferred to the Prince Regent yacht prior to commanding the naval contingent based in the Tagus during the Portuguese War of the Two Brothers. Subsequently appointed Commander-in-Chief on the China station, he led the naval squadron sent to China during the First China War up the Yangtze without loss, entering Shanghai in March, 1842 and helping Gough to negotiate the Treaty of Nanking.

The Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Military Division, Knight Commander's embroidered Investment Star, 68.5mm, slight overall wear, good very fine £400-600

Sir William Parker was appointed K.C.B. on 16 July 1834.

328
Sketches: Nicholas Pocock (and possibly others), a group of nine pencil and ink sketches, including two of a ship's figure-head and several, including a positional sketch, apparently in preparation for a painting of the 1806 Amazon frigate action, one with the manuscript note I don't think this is what Capt. Parker means..., all in paper wrapper inscribed 'Sketches by Pocock for Drawings of the Amazon', generally in fine or very fine condition [one illustrated] (9) £800-1,200

329
A Presentation Silver Waiter, by John Crouch, London 1809, on tripod feet, with shell decoration and gadrooned border, engraved with arms portraying shackle pin and the legend The Earl of St. Vincent - to his Godson - John Parker Nuttall 1803 within oak wreath, diameter 250mm, wt. 620g, very fine condition £600-800

The Earl of St Vincent, who married Thomas Parker's daughter Martha, was godfather to her half-sister's grandson (and Sir William Parker's nephew), John Parker Nuttall. It is not unusual to find gifts of this kind 'retro-engraved' with the date of a birth or Christening.

H.M.S. Victory Box: A circular oak box made from Victory's timbers, the base and lid set with silver-gilt inserts (by Charles Reily and George Storer, London, 1835), the lid interior engraved 'To REAR ADMIRAL Sir Wm. Parker K.C.B. THIS BOX formed of A PIECE OF THE OAK composing THE SHIP IN WHICH THE IMMORTAL NELSON FELL. Is respectfully offered by A TRULY GRATEFUL FRIEND. H.M.S. Victory, Portsmouth Harbour, 31 Augt. 1835.', diameter 105mm, base warped over time so that the insert has 'sprung', generally in good very fine original condition £600-800

331

During his long life FIELD MARSHAL THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE VISCOUNT GOUGH, K.P., G.C.S.I., G.C.B., P.C. (1779-1869) is said to have commanded in more campaigns than any other British Officer in the 19th Century, with the single exception of the Duke of Wellington. Two of his nephews became Generals and recipients of the Victoria Cross. The present portrait appears to date from the mid 1840s and may have been a personal gift to Sir William Parker.

Private Signals: A Small Manuscript Notebook of landscape format (9cms. high x 6cms. wide) listing numerous communication signals, presumably compiled by or under the direction of Admiral Parker during one of his two tenures in Malta, 1845-6 or 1849-52, 6 pages detailing hand-coloured flags and with several additional headers, original gold-blocked calf with lettered spine £400-600

William Henry Lunning Senior enlisted in the K.R.R.C. in 1886. He was posted to India in 1891, and his Indian service was to include no fewer than 332 days hospitalised due to disease. In October 1892 he took part in the punitive raid on villages around Baio, and during the Relief of Chitral campaign he was involved in the action of the Malakand Pass, 3 April 1895. In January 1897 he was transferred to the reserve, after which he joined the Port of London Dockland Constabulary. Recalled to the colours in November 1899 he embarked for South Africa the following month, where he served with the Rifle Reserve Provisional Battalion during the relief of Ladysmith and remained with them until its break-up in March 1900, when he was transferred to the 1st Battalion. In May 1900 Lunning was invalided sick and returned to England in July, but after treatment at Netley was well enough to return to the Dockland Constabulary. In July 1915 he re-enlisted and served with the 5th K.R.R.C. on coastal defence at Sheerness, and in November 1916 transferred to the 17th (Labour Battalion) Queen's Regiment. He ended the war with the Labour Corps.

William Henry Lunning Junior enlisted in the RNVR in November 1915 and served in the Mediterranean aboard drifters. In August 1916 he was wounded in the hand while attempting to remove a rifle from the rack without engaging the safety catch. In January 1919 he was invalided due to epilepsy and functional paralysis and was issued with Silver War Badge no. 35611 later that month.

At 3 am on 8 June 1940 the aircraft carrier H.M.S. Glorious set sail from Narvik, escorted by the destroyers H.M.S. Acasta and Ardent, for Scapa Flow. Approximately 170 miles of the Norwegian coast they ran into the German battleships Scharnhorst and Gneisenau and at 4.30pm both battleships opened fire on the three ships from 18 miles range, by 7.20 pm all three ships had sank with a total of over 1,500 personnel killed. On the 13 June a German seaplane picked up the two surviving men from H.M.S. Ardent, Roger Hooke, who was stationed on the X gun and Robert Philip Jones. Jones died in hospital in Oslo on 1 July, leaving Hooke as the sole survivor. Hooke, who nearly died from exposure after being rescued, became a German prisoner of war at Stalag IId, near Stargard, Pomerania, as prisoner no. 62231; he was finally repatriated in 1943 due to ill health.

Black Watch: The Wauchope Medal for Gallantry, in silver, the obverse engraved For conspicuous gallantry in the capture of German trenches Sept. 25th 1915, reverse engraved To Piper D. Armit 2nd Bn. The Black Watch from Lt. Col. A.G. Wauchope, contained in Hamilton and Co. Ltd. case, minor edge bruise, good very fine and rare £800-1,000

Colonel Wauchope was eager to give a mark of recognition to those who greatly distinguished themselves in battle. He therefore ordered a medallion to be specially struck, and gave this to non-commissioned officers and men who had been recommended for gallantry in action. Colonel Wauchope gave approximately 90 of these medals in total, mostly to men who had been recommended for gallantry after the battles of Loos and Mushaidie - the Battle beyond Baghdad - and ten others to men who had specially distinguished themselves scouting in No Man's Land.

'In the attack by the 2nd Black Watch at Mauquissart, 25th September, 1915, the pipers took a prominent part, playing their companies up to and through the German first and second lines. After three lines had been captured the order to attack the fourth was given. 736 Piper David Simpson at once dashed forward playing, followed by his company he was killed just as they reached the objective. His bravery earned him the title, for long after, of "The Piper of Loos." He was recommended for the Victoria Cross. Further on, 1839 Piper Alexander Macdonald alternately played from one trench to the next and assisted in bombing the enemy out of their dugouts. In the third trench he marched, playing "Macgregor's Gathering," down the trench at the head of the bombers, and then climbed on to the parapet and continued playing. He was ultimately wounded and lost his leg. For his gallantry he was given the D.C.M., but did not long survive to enjoy the honour as he died soon after his discharge. At the same time 365 Piper R. Johnstone went on playing until he fell gassed. As pipers fell out wounded others took their place and the battalion was played continuously into and through the action, it appears to be a tradition among the pipers of this battalion that they were always to play whenever an opportunity occurred. Pipers David Armit and J. Galloway played right up to and through the German support trenches.'

London Gazette: 22 December 1939.

'...For gallant and distinguished services rendered in connection with the operations in Palestine during the period 1st April-30th July 1939.'

'Sergeant Kavanagh has served in No. 6 (B) Squadron since 10th April 1938. Involved in a bad crash shortly after his arrival, he spent nearly four months in hospital and on sick leave, but from September 1938 until June 1939, he has carried out over 200 hours flying of an operational nature as Wireless Operator/Air Gunner. Throughout this time, his courage during many actions with the enemy and his efficiency in the air and the ground have served as a splendid example to the other operators and Air Gunners in the squadron. On 15 September 1938, he originated an "XX" and was responsible for eight casualties with his own gun. On 17 November 1938, while escorting Officer Commanding No. 18 Infantry Brigade and party in the vicinity of Har-Tuv, the land forces were ambushed by an armed gang. Sergeant Kavanagh sent an "XX"2 call and then, in conjunction with his pilot, successfully attacked the enemy, inflicting casualties. He has answered a large number of emergency calls for air assistance during which air action has been taken against the enemy.'

JOHN JOSEPH KAVANAGH was killed in a flying accident in the Sudan on 19 October 1941 and is buried in Khartoum War Cemetery.

George Medal, George VI Type 1 (Frederick Ernest Rose), good very fine £2,000-2,500

London Gazette: 30 September 1940:

'Rose was in charge of the salvage party at the factory at which he is employed. Although a raid was in progress and bombs and debris were still falling, Rose led his two assistants into damaged buildings and though hampered by flood water and darkness personally extinguished fires which had been started amongst some magnesium. He then led his men on to another affected area and assisted to check fires which had also broken out there. By his personal courage and coolness he was an outstanding example to others. On another occasion he was brought to notice for gallant work during an air raid.'

FREDERICK ERNEST ROSE was a maintenance engineer at the engine department of the Bristol Aeroplane Co. Ltd.'s base at Filton. The bombing raid against the Filton base took place on the night of 22/23 August 1940, which was a clear and moonlit one over Bristol. It involved 23 He 111's which were dispatched from their newly established base at Vannes in Brittany and which flew along an approach beam radiated from the X-Beam transmitter at Cherbourg. During the attack, which took place between 23.19 and 02.50 hrs, 16.65 tonnes of high explosive and 576 incendiary bombs were dropped in the area, causing considerable damage to the works, in particular at No.4 Factory and No.11 Test Bed. Four people were injured.

British Empire Medal awarded for Gallantry in rescuing a trapped man during an air raid in Chelsea, British Empire Medal, Civil Division, George VI Type 1 (Alan David Falk), extremely fine, with related miniature, offered with letter from the Central Chancery dated 4 April 2008 and a related letter from his executor (2) £250-300

London Gazette: 3 October 1941:

'To be an Additional Member of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:-
William Albert Honour. Superintendent, "B" Division, Metropolitan Police.

Awarded the British Empire Medal
(Civil Division):—
John Cyprian Nightingale, Station Inspector, "B" Division, Metropolitan Police.
Wyndham Vavasor Watkins, Police Constable, "B" Division, Metropolitan Police.
Alan David Falk, Warden, Civil Defence Wardens Service, Kensington.

A bomb caused damage to property and fires started. A man was trapped under debris on the second floor of a building, the roof and top floor of which had fallen in. The outer wall had been blown out and a remaining wall was likely to collapse. In addition, a fire was raging in the adjoining house and another at premises opposite.

Superintendent Honour, with Nightingale/Watkins and Falk, reached the second floor and found the victim lying on a bed covered with plaster and other debris from the floors above. The heat from the fires increased but the four men began to remove the debris with their hands. Great care was necessary to ensure that no undue vibration was caused. After a time the man was partially uncovered but he was still pinned down by a broken joist which had fallen across the upper part of his body. The removal of this joist was attended by considerable danger as any movement was likely to cause a further collapse of the wall.

Great gallantry was shown by the rescuers and after they had worked for an hour the trapped man was released without having suffered any serious injury.'

An Immediate Military Medal Group of Four for the Attack on Port-en-Bessin, 7 June 1944, awarded to Private Roy Emsley, B Troop, 47 Commando Royal Marines, Military Medal, George VI Type 1 (PO. X. 105331. R. Emsley. R.M.), 1939-45, France and Germany Stars, Defence and War Medal, about very fine £6,000-8,000

Military Medal: London Gazette: 12 September 1944:

'For gallant and distinguished services while operating with the Army in Normandy.'

'On 7 June 1944 Pte PO/X 105331 Roy Emsley during an attack on Port-en-Bessin with 47 Commando. Pte. Emsley was providing covering fire for a comrade who was attempting to rescue 2 wounded men under heavy crossfire. Whilst doing so a mortar shell exploded, taking out his left eye and filling his body with shrapnel, despite being terribly wounded he continued firing his gun enabling the 2 soldiers to be rescued.'

Roy Emsley (before D-Day)

47 Commando landed on Gold Beach at 9.50 AM on 6 June 1944. They had already lost 28 men killed or drowned, 21 more wounded and another 27 missing, and were further hampered by the loss of considerable amounts of ammunition. They were directed to make a forced march nine miles west to the small harbour of Port-en-Bessin, which was to become the main port for fuel supplies until the liberation of Cherbourg. The port was attacked at 16.00 hours on the following day. After a fiercely contested battle aided by naval support the port was finally captured during the following afternoon.

General Sir Brian Horrocks, commander of the British 30th Corps in Normandy, wrote of 47 Royal Marine Commando's capture of Port-en-Bessin: 'It is doubtful whether, in their long, distinguished history, the marines have ever achieved anything finer.'

ROY EMSLEY was born in Burnley, Lancashire 29 November 1922. He was still being treated for his injuries when presented with his Military Medal by the King at Buckingham Palace in February 1945. Emsley died in 1991.

Second World War Italian Campaign Immediate Military Medal Group of Four awarded to Gunner Frederick Harold Brown, Royal Artillery, Military Medal, George VI (966166 Gnr. F.H. Brown. R.A.), 1939-45, Italy Stars, War Medal, mounted for wearing, generally extremely fine (with copied research) £1,000-1,200

M.M: London Gazette: 19 September 1944, General Citation.

'On 18 May 1944 at about 1230 hours a signal maintenance post of this Regiment received a direct hit from a 15cm shell. The shell penetrated the outer wall of the house and the inner walls and ceilings collapsed. One man was killed and two severely wounded. No. 966116 Gunner Brown F. H. was in the same room as these men. He himself was badly shocked and wounded in the left arm. Despite other shells falling he dug out No. 935126 Gnr. Bottomley C., carried him to his 15-cwt truck, drove him to the C.C.S., a distance of some six miles and returned. When he returned to the maintenance post he collapsed. By his gallant and immediate action Gunner Brown may well have saved the life of Gunner Bottomley...'

An Arnhem Military Medal Group awarded to Serjeant Alfred William Robus, No. 10 Platoon, 'T' Company, 1st Parachute Battalion Army Air Corps, Seven, Military Medal, George VI Type 1 (5678213 Sjt. A.W. Robus. A.A.C.), 1939-45, Africa, Italy, France and Germany Stars and loose 1st Army clasp, Defence and War Medals, Military Medal with edge bruises, otherwise very fine, World War II Stars and Medals all recent issues, extremely fine, with original Soldier's Service Book, this in distressed condition and copy photographs (7), including five of the recipient (7) £6,000-8,000

Military Medal: London Gazette: 9 November 1944.

'...In recognition of gallant and distinguished services in the field.'

'Throughout the Airborne operation at Arnhem, 17th/25th September 1944, this NCO displayed great powers of command and an undisputed example of leadership and devotion of duty.

On September 20th many of our own troops were wounded by fire on a very open stretch of ground. In quick succession an officer and two other ranks were killed in attempting to reach and bring in the wounded men. This was observed by Sergeant Robus who nevertheless without hesitation went out alone under a hail of fire and succeeded in bringing in three wounded men, in all probability saving their lives.

His coolness and complete disregard for his life in this bullet swept country was an inspiration to his whole platoon and undoubtedly permanently boosted their fighting spirit until the close of the operation. He was wounded on September 25th.'

Second World War Tank Landing Ship Operation 'Ferdy' Distinguished Service Order Group of Eight awarded to Lieutenant-Commander Leslie Johnson Smith R.N.R., Distinguished Service Order, George VI, reverse of bar dated 1944, 1939-45, Africa, Italy, France and Germany Star, Defence and War Medals, Royal Naval Reserve Decoration, George VI, reverse engraved 1943, first and last in Royal mint cases of issue, these virtually as issued, with related miniatures and R.N.R. officer's dress sword (17)
£2,000-3,000

'For gallantry, leadership and undaunted devotion to duty under heavy and continuous fire from the enemy during landings on the Italian mainland'

The following is taken from the official recommendation.
'This Officer, while in command of L.S.T. 65, displayed courage and determination in entering the harbour while under heavy shell and mortar fire. Although his ship was hit several times and some vehicles were on fire, he successfully beached his ship and all vehicles, including guns which were urgently required, were discharged in 95 minutes. By his determination, he materially helped the military situation which at that time gave rise to some anxiety.'

The following extract is taken from The Daily Herald, 25 October 1943.
Every enemy gun within firing range was firing at Tank Landing Ship No. 65 as she zig-zagged towards the beach-and they were hitting her. ...The job was to get guns and vehicles to Eighth Army men who had been put ashore 25 miles behind enemy lines during the first Italy landings. ...They ran into the van of retreating Germans. ... Lt-Commander Leslie John Smith, R.N.R. was in command. Led by a motor launch, No. 65 approached the beach in the full light of morning. She was an easy target and received 40 direct hits. Some of the vehicles aboard were set ablaze. Many men were killed or wounded. But, firing all her guns, no 65 beached at full speed. Then one of the bow doors refused to open. There was a bulldozer on the beach. Under mortar and machine gun fire it was hitched up and the door was torn open. The guns and vehicles were in action within a few minutes of leaving the ship and the original landing party was able to do the job it set out to do.'

Royal Naval Reserve Decoration: London Gazette: 23 April 1943.

The lot is offered with the following original documentation: D.S.O. warrant; Warrant of Appointment as Sub-Lieutenant R.N.R. 17 August 1927; Letters of promotion (3) to Lieutenant 8 March 1929 (2) and Lieutenant Commander 8 March 1937; two naval messages, one specifically relating to L.S.T. 65; Letter notifying him of his award of the D.S.O.; Buckingham Palace investiture ticket; 4th L.S.T. Flotilla Christmas 1943 menu; 8 original photographs, some of the recipient and other of L.S.T. 65. Also copied documentation, including recommendation for Decoration or Mention in Despatches L.S.T. 65, 19 September-8 October 1943 with 11 recommendations, including Lieutenant Commander Smith's; damage report for L.S.T. 65; various newspaper reports of the incident and a brief biographical account by his son.

Second World War Distinguished Flying Medal Group of Four awarded to Flight-Sergeant Charles Manser, 101 Squadron R.A.F., subsequently a Radio Operator with British European Airways, who was killed on 5 April 1948 when a Soviet Yak aircraft collided head-on with his plane, an incident which was one of the events leading to the Berlin Blockade: Distinguished Flying Medal, George VI type 1 (1391829. F/Sgt. C. Manser. R.A.F.), 1939-45, Air Crew Europe Stars, War Medal, extremely fine (4) £4,000-6,000

Charles Manser qualified as Wireless Operator in May 1942. On 7 November 1943 he was posted to 101 Squadron, Ludford Magna and his first operational flight over Frankfurt took place 13 days later. 101 Squadron was one of the 'Secret Squadrons' equipped with an extra radio operator and ABC equipment to jam German radio frequencies. They were present on every bombing mission, where they used the radio jamming equipment to protect the entire flight of bombers; as a result they had the highest casualty rate of any R.A.F. bomber squadron. Manser was transferred from 101 Squadron in June 1942 and was not involved in further bombing operations during the war.

After the war he joined British European Airways as a radio operator, and on 5 April 1948 took off in a Vickers Viking on a scheduled British European Airways flight. The following account is taken from Bob Clarke, 10 Tons for Tempelhof, The Berlin Airlift, Stroud, 2007:

'A scheduled British European Airways Vickers Viking was on its final approach into Gatow, when suddenly a Yak-3 Russian fighter passed close by at speed. The Yak then turned and made another high-speed pass, misjudged and crashed head-on into the Viking, ripping the starboard wing clean-off the aircraft. Both aircraft crashed in flames killing all on board, wreckage coming down on both sides of the sector border. Maj. Hen. Herbert was immediately on the scene. He discovered the Yak had come down in the British sector but this was already guarded by Russian troops. Unfortunately the Viking fuselage lay just inside the Soviet Sector; this too was surrounded by armed Russians. After lengthy negotiations Herbert agreed to allow one Russian sentry to remain at the Yak site as long as one British soldier was allowed to stay with the Viking.

The bodies of the four crew, John Ralph, pilot, Norman Merrington, co-pilot, Charles Manser, Radio Operator, and Leonard C. Goodman, Steward, along with their ten passengers, including two from America and one from Australia, had to be left at the crash site while the political wrangling over access to the aircraft dragged on. Robertson (British Military Governor Berlin) was enraged by the situation and immediately ordered fighter escort for all British aircraft using the (Berlin) corridors. Sokolovsky (Soviet Military Governor) even gave Robertson an assurance that the SMA had no intention in interfering with aircraft using the corridors. However this attitude did not last for long. When a quadripartite board of enquiry was requested the Soviets blamed the accident on the British, saying that no request for the aircraft to be allowed to traverse Soviet airspace had been lodged and in any case the Yak was legally allowed to be there. Eventually a board of enquiry was convened but it comprised only Russian and British investigators. The Soviets argued that the French and American representatives were not required and forbade their inclusion. The board published its findings in two separate reports but both came to similar conclusions, the accident was just that, no malicious intent was intended and the crash was down to an error on behalf of the Yak pilot.'

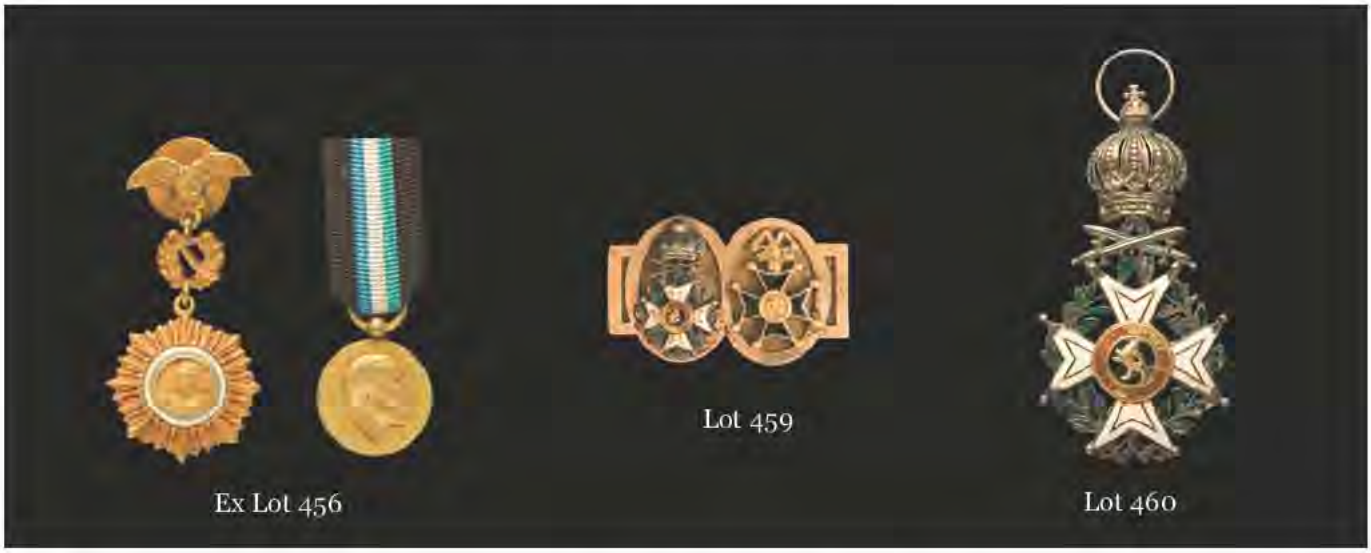

The lot is offered with his Navigator's, Air Bomber's and Air Gunner's Flying Log Book with entries from May 1943-February 1945, including details of 31 sorties over Germany, many as part of the Battle of Berlin, between November 1943 and May 1944, from which the following extracts are taken.
'20/1/44 Ops-Berlin-Attacked by 3-ME110s, cannon shells thro portside etc., emergency landing... A/C write off'.

In addition to the Log Book, the lot also contains the following:
Original copy of RAF Transport Command Certificate of Qualification of Completion of Transport Operational Training Course as a Wireless Operator (pasted in logbook); R.A.F. Service and Release Book; Four R.A.F. workbooks; two Sergeants' Mess R.A.F. Ludford Magna Christmas Dinner 1943 menus, both signed on the back by members of 101 Squadron operational crew; nine original photographs, including one of the investiture; photocopied Death Certificate; photocopied newspaper reporting the crash, with an original news cutting of the crash site. Original letters (3) from the Private Secretary to Military Governor of Berlin to Manser's father-in-law concerning forwarding the personal effects, 29 April 1948, from the RAF Record and Pay Office concerning the gratuity awarded with the D.F.M. 24 October 1969 and from the German Air Attaché concerning the 50th Anniversary of the Berlin Airlift commemoration, 3 February 1998.

END OF SALE

Conditions of Business for Buyers

1. Introduction

(a) The contractual relationship of Morton & Eden Ltd. and Sellers with prospective Buyers is governed by:-
(i) these Conditions of Business for Buyers;
(ii) the Conditions of Business for Sellers displayed in the saleroom and available from Morton & Eden Ltd ;
(iii) Morton & Eden Ltd.'s Authenticity Guarantee;
(iv) any additional notices and terms printed in the sale catalogue, in each case as amended by any saleroom notice or auctioneer's announcement.

(b) As auctioneer, Morton & Eden Ltd. acts as agent for the Seller. Occasionally, Morton & Eden Ltd. may own or have a financial interest in a lot.

2. Definitions

"Bidder" is any person making, attempting or considering making a bid, including Buyers;
"Buyer" is the person who makes the highest bid or offer accepted by the auctioneer, including a Buyer's principal when bidding as agent;
"Seller" is the person offering a lot for sale, including their agent, or executors;
"M&E" means Morton & Eden Ltd., auctioneers, 45 Maddox Street, London W1S 2PE, company number 4198353.
"Buyer's Expenses" are any costs or expenses due to Morton & Eden Ltd. from the Buyer;
"Buyer's Premium" is the commission payable by the Buyer on the Hammer Price at the rates set out in the Important Information for Buyers;
"Hammer Price" is the highest bid for the Property accepted by the auctioneer at the auction or the post auction sale price;
"Purchase Price" is the Hammer Price plus applicable Buyer's Premium and Buyer's Expenses;
"Reserve Price" (where applicable) is the minimum Hammer Price at which the Seller has agreed to sell a lot.

3. Examination of Lots

(a) M&E's knowledge of lots is partly dependent on information provided by the Seller and M&E is unable to exercise exhaustive due diligence on each lot. Each lot is available for examination before sale. Bidders are responsible for carrying out examinations and research before sale to satisfy themselves over the condition of lots and accuracy of descriptions.

(b) All oral and/or written information provided to Bidders relating to lots, including descriptions in the catalogue, condition reports or elsewhere are statements of M&E's opinion and not representations of fact. Estimates may not be relied on as a prediction of the selling price or value of the lot and may be revised from time to time at M&E's absolute discretion.

4. Exclusions and limitations of liability to Buyers

(a) M&E shall refund the Purchase Price to the Buyer in circumstances where it deems that the lot is a Counterfeit, subject to the terms of M&E's Authenticity Guarantee.

(b) Subject to Condition 4(a), neither M&E nor the Seller:-
(i) is liable for any errors or omissions in any oral or written information provided to Bidders by M&E, whether negligent or otherwise;
(ii) gives any guarantee or warranty to Bidders and any implied warranties and conditions are excluded (save in so far as such obligations cannot be excluded by English law), other than the express warranties given by the Seller to the Buyer (for which the Seller is solely responsible) under the Conditions of Business for Sellers;
(iii) accepts responsibility to Bidders for acts or omissions (whether negligent or otherwise) by M&E in connection with the conduct of auctions or for any matter relating to the sale of any lot.

(c) Without prejudice to Condition 4(b), any claim against M&E and/ or the Seller by a Bidder is limited to the Purchase Price for the relevant lot. Neither M&E nor the Seller shall be liable for any indirect or consequential losses.

(d) Nothing in Condition 4 shall exclude or limit the liability of M&E or the Seller for death or personal injury caused by the negligent acts or omissions of M&E or the Seller.

5. Bidding at Auction

(a) M&E has absolute discretion to refuse admission to the auction. Before sale, Bidders must complete a Registration Form and supply such information and references as M&E requires. Bidders are personally liable for their bid and are jointly and severally liable with their principal, if bidding as agent (in which case M&E's prior and express consent must be obtained).

(b) M&E advises Bidders to attend the auction, but M&E will endeavour to execute absentee written bids provided that they are, in M&E's opinion, received in sufficient time and in legible form.
(c) When available, written and telephone bidding is offered as a free service at the Bidder's risk and subject to M&E's other commitments; M&E is therefore not liable for failure to execute such bids. Telephone bidding may be recorded.

6. Import, Export and Copyright Restrictions

M&E and the Seller make no representations or warranties as to whether any lot is subject to import, export or copyright restrictions. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any copyright clearance or any necessary import, export or other licence required by law, including licenses required under the Convention on the International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES).

7. Conduct of the Auction

(a) The auctioneer has discretion to refuse bids, withdraw or re-offer lots for sale (including after the fall of the hammer) if (s)he believes that there may be an error or dispute, and may also take such other action as (s)he reasonably deems necessary.

(b) The auctioneer will commence and advance the bidding in such increments as (s)he considers appropriate and is entitled to place bids on the Seller's behalf up to the Reserve Price for the lot, where applicable.

(c) Subject to Condition 7(a), the contract between the Buyer and the Seller is concluded on the striking of the auctioneer's hammer.

(d) Any post-auction sale of lots shall incorporate these Conditions of Business.

8. Payment and Collection

(a) Unless otherwise agreed in advance, payment of the Purchase Price is due in pounds sterling immediately after the auction (the "Payment Date").

(b) Title in a lot will not pass to the Buyer until M&E has received the Purchase Price in cleared funds. M&E will generally not release a lot to a Buyer before payment. Earlier release shall not affect passing of title or the Buyer's obligation to pay the Purchase Price, as above.

(c) The refusal of any licence or permit required by law, as outlined in Condition 6, shall not affect the Buyer's obligation to pay for the lot, as per Condition 8(a).

(d) The Buyer must arrange collection of lots within 10 working days of the auction. Purchased lots are at the Buyer's risk from the earlier of (i) collection or (ii) 10 working days after the auction. Until risk passes, M&E will compensate the Buyer for any loss or damage to the lot up to a maximum of the Purchase Price actually paid by the Buyer. M&E's assumption of risk is subject to the exclusions detailed in Condition 5(d) of the Conditions of Business for Sellers.

(e) All packing and handling of lots is at the Buyer's risk. M&E will not be liable for any acts or omissions of third party packers or shippers.

9. Remedies for non-payment

Without prejudice to any rights that the Seller may have, if the Buyer without prior agreement fails to make payment for the lot within 5 working days of the auction, M&E may in its sole discretion exercise 1 or more of the following remedies:-

(a) store the lot at its premises or elsewhere at the Buyer's sole risk and expense;

(b) cancel the sale of the lot;

(c) set off any amounts owed to the Buyer by M&E against any amounts owed to M&E by the Buyer for the lot;

(d) reject future bids from the Buyer;

(e) charge interest at 8% per annum above Lloyds TSB Bank plc Base Rate from the Payment Date to the date that the Purchase Price is received in cleared funds;

(f) re-sell the lot by auction or privately, with estimates and reserves at M&E's discretion, in which case the Buyer will be liable for any shortfall between the original Purchase Price and the amount achieved on re-sale, including all costs incurred in such re-sale;

(g) Exercise a lien over any Buyer's Property in M&E's possession, applying the sale proceeds to any amounts owed by the Buyer to M&E. M&E shall give the Buyer 14 days written notice before exercising such lien;

(h) commence legal proceedings to recover the Purchase Price for the lot, plus interest and legal costs;

(i) disclose the Buyer's details to the Seller to enable the Seller to commence legal proceedings.

10. Failure to collect purchases

(a) If the Buyer pays the Purchase Price but does not collect the lot within 20 working days of the auction, the lot will be stored at the Buyer's expense and risk at M&E's premises or in independent storage.

(b) If a lot is paid for but uncollected within 6 months of the auction, following 60 days written notice to the Buyer, M&E will re-sell the lot by auction or privately, with estimates and reserves at M&E's discretion. The sale proceeds, less all M&E's costs, will be forfeited unless collected by the Buyer within 2 years of the original auction.

11. Data Protection

(a) M&E will use information supplied by Bidders or otherwise obtained lawfully by M&E for the provision of auction related services, client administration, marketing and as otherwise required by law.

(b) By agreeing to these Conditions of Business, the Bidder agrees to the processing of their personal information and to the disclosure of such information to third parties world-wide for the purposes outlined in Condition 11(a) and to Sellers as per Condition 9(i).

12. Miscellaneous

(a) All images of lots, catalogue descriptions and all other materials produced by M&E are the copyright of M&E.

(b) These Conditions of Business are not assignable by any Buyer without M&E's prior written consent, but are binding on Bidders' successors, assigns and representatives.

(c) The materials listed in Condition 1(a) set out the entire agreement between the parties.

(d) If any part of these Conditions of Business be held unenforceable, the remaining parts shall remain in full force and effect.

(e) These Conditions of Business shall be interpreted in accordance with English Law, under the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts, in favour of M&E.

Morton & Eden Ltd.'s Authenticity Guarantee

If Morton & Eden Ltd. sells an item of Property which is later shown to be a "Counterfeit", subject to the terms below Morton & Eden Ltd. will rescind the sale and refund the Buyer the total amount paid by the Buyer to Morton & Eden Ltd. for that Property, up to a maximum of the Purchase Price.

The Guarantee lasts for two (2) years after the date of the relevant auction, is for the benefit of the Buyer only and is non-transferable.

"Counterfeit" means an item of Property that in Morton & Eden Ltd.'s reasonable opinion is an imitation created with the intent to deceive over the authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source, where the correct description of such matters is not included in the catalogue description for the Property.
Property shall not be considered Counterfeit solely because of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work (including, but not limited to, traces of mounting, tooling or repatinating).
Please note that this Guarantee does not apply if either:-

(i) the catalogue description was in accordance with the generally accepted opinions of scholars and experts at the date of the sale, or the catalogue description indicated that there was a conflict of such opinions; or

(ii) the only method of establishing at the date of the sale that the item was a Counterfeit would have been by means of processes not then generally available or accepted, unreasonably expensive or impractical; or likely to have caused damage to or loss in value to the Property (in Morton & Eden Ltd.'s reasonable opinion); or

(iii) there has been no material loss in value of the Property from its value had it accorded with its catalogue description.

To claim under this Guarantee, the Buyer must:-

(i) notify Morton & Eden Ltd. in writing within one (1) month of receiving any information that causes the Buyer to question the authenticity or attribution of the Property, specifying the lot number, date of the auction at which it was purchased and the reasons why it is believed to be Counterfeit; and

(ii) return the Property to Morton & Eden Ltd. in the same condition as at the date of sale and be able to transfer good title in the Property, free from any third party claims arising after the date of the sale.

Morton & Eden Ltd. has discretion to waive any of the above requirements. Morton & Eden Ltd. may require the Buyer to obtain at the Buyer's cost the reports of two independent and recognised experts in the relevant field and acceptable to Morton & Eden Ltd. Morton & Eden Ltd. shall not be bound by any reports produced by the Buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense. In the event Morton & Eden Ltd. decides to rescind the sale under this Guarantee, it may refund to the Buyer the reasonable costs of up to two mutually approved independent expert reports, provided always that the costs of such reports have been approved in advance and in writing by Morton & Eden Ltd.
